At first the ory of foul play was scouted, and vas also thought that a body reted to be in the McKeesport morr might be that of Jacopich, but Thursday, Mike Gaspich, the Wire-butcher, went to McKeesport and wed the body, but failed to identit, as one finger was missing and opich had all his digets. However, Gaspich says he remembers ing seen the dead man in Monessen day last week; that body was nd near the Ella mine last Sunday rning. THE NASHES WILL BE OFF MONDAY EVENING

General Superintendent George Nash, of the Pittsburg Steel, has everything arranged for an extensive trip abroad, and Monday evening he in company with Mrs. Nash and two daughters, Elizabeth and Emily, will leave Pittsburg for New York, from where they will sail Tuesday night. The trip is being made mainly for pleasure and will cover a period of six weeks at least, but the itinerary has not been completed, but the first point of destination will be Wales. During their absence they will visit many friends and relatives abroad.

Mr. Nash has arranged his business affairs so as to be relieved as much as possible. His automobile has been placed in "cold storage" at Belle Vernon. His farm has been turned over to William McNutt, who will look after the crops, as well as the ducks and geese J. A. Sheetz was negotiating to be head farmer, but the crops on his own farm across the road last season did not commend him to Mr. Nash and the latter flatly refused his application. Mr. Sheetz is somewhat disappointed but says he will have more time to attend to his own crops, and he hopes to make a better showing this year than last.

OLYMPIC HAS A BILL OF MORE THAN ORDINARY MERIT

A bill of more than ordinary merit is holding down the boards at the Olympic this afternoon and evening. Four high class acts are presented in addition to the regular program of pictures and the daily dispatches of the American Press Association. The Stocktons in an amusing playlet open the bill. Both possess remarkably fine voices and the act is well received. Arthur McConell follows in a singing and talking act which is very amusing. The Great Archie and Co., present their acrobatic and sleight of hand performance which is away above the usual run of this sort of entertainment. The vaudeville closes with Winters, Harris and Prov in an uproariously funny skit which convulses one with laughter from start to finish.

REV. CHERNEY'S DEATH FROM SMALLPOX VERIFIED BY RELATIVES

The Daily Independent's story of Thursday referring to the rumored death of Rev. J. A. Cherney, in China, has been verified by a telephone talk had yesterday by Mrs. George Nash with Attorney L. J. Cherney, of Cleveland, a brother of Rev. Cherney.

Rev. Cherney died at Shanghai, China, Saturday, May 11th, of smallpox, after only a few day's sickness. He had been in the very best of health, apparently, as was stated in a letter from Mrs. Cherney some days ago. He had gone to the famine district, being one among the few who volunteered to go and minister to the sick and famine stricken populace in the northern portion of China. In the meantime Mrs. Cherney receiving word of the serious illness of her father at Churchville, N. Y., communicated the sad news to her husband, who immediately returned home to comfort her. In a few days after arriving home the dread disease developed with fatal result. The telegram from Cleveland stated that Mrs. Cherney and their litte son were with him when the end came. Mrs. Cherney's father also died, hence the hand of sorrow falls heavily upon her at this time in a far-off land with no one to comfort her but her little son. However, brave and determined, placing her trust in Him who doeth all things for the best, she has determined to remain in the mission field of China, taking up and carrying on the work from the point where her beloved husband laid it down, with his life, for the present at least.

Rev. J. A. Cherney was 34 years of age; he was for quite a time the beloved pastor of the First Baptist church of Monessen, and was loved and respected, not only by the membership of his own congregation, but by all who knew him. May 14, 1909 he was united in marriage to Miss Julia Wilson, of Churchville, N. Y., who spent about three months here; she, like her husband being a most excellent character, made many friends. Rev. Cherney having chosen as his life-work a devotion to the mission field, they departed from Monessen August 16th, of the same year for China, where they have since been ministering to the spiritual and earthly needs of that people.

The membership of the Baptist church and Monessen as a town is in sorrow and mourning over the sad news, and Sunday evening Rev. A. T. Wallace, pastor of that church, will preach a special memorial sermon in memory of Rev. Cherney and all friends are requested to attend.

FIREMEN TO GO TO CHURCH

All the members of the Volunteer fire department of Monessen are requested to meet at the borough building Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, preparatory to attending divine services at the Presbyterian church, Rev. H. O. MacDonald the pastor to deliver a sermon specially prepared for the occasion. The boys will move as a body at 7:30 to the church, services to begin at 7:45. A full attendance is desired.

CONSTABLE SMITH'S ARE ALL FOUND RIGHT

Constable A. J. Smith is feeling quite elated over the successfull disposition of six cases which he had in court for trial from Monessen. The cases all came up for hearing this week and each offender was given a good salty sentence. Della Simon and Samuel Adams, both colored, who were gathered in the legal drag net near the Monessen bridge a few weeks ago, when a disorderly house was cleaned up, were each sentenced to three months to the work house, as were also two local people who were apprehended as visitors in the house at the time the raid was made.

Billy Jones, who had been arrested on a charge of attempting to remove his household goods from a building without squaring up the back rent, was fined one dollar and costs and six months to the workhouse.

A true bill was found against Wm. Jones, of Donora, who a few weeks ago, while in a drunken condition, picked a quarrel with a young miner at Webster and shot and killed him. His trial on a murder charge will come up May 24.

THE BIG RINGLING CIRCUS IS IN CHARLEROI TODAY

This is the day for red lemonade and peanuts at Charleroi, the great Ringling Bros. circus pitching its tents this morning, having arrived from Uniontown where it showed yesterday. The Ringling's are recognized today as being on a par with the Barnum and Bailey aggregation, and in fact some people think it a better show in many respects. At any rate relatively this show is recognized today as was the old Adam Forepaugh show twenty or twenty-five years ago, when at the opening of the season the Barnum and Forepaugh shows combined, exhibited together in Madison Square Garden, ~~giving their parade at night by~~ electric light. Hundreds of peope are in Charleroi from Monessen today, both for the parade and show.

When a "wild man" who had been hanging about Cumberland, Md., was rounded up, it was found that he was only wild with hunger. Another sad commentary on the high cost of living.

MEETING OF BOARD OF TRADE

At the May meeting of the Board of Trade in the council chambers last evening, much was accomplished and all-in-all it was one of the best meetings for some time. Much enthusiasm prevailed and the business up for consideration was despatched in very short time. Five drinking troughs are to be installed, two each at convenient points on Donner and Schoonmaker avenues and one opposite the Fifth Avenue Hotel on Fifth street.

The report of the committee to investigate humane conditions was very brief and will be gone into further at the next meeting. Chairman Phil Joseph of the complaint committee was ordered to look into the condition of the waste paper cans and to secure a way in which to stop the placing of garbage in the receptacles. He was also ordered to appear before council and make complaints concerning the condition of the streets and sidewalks in many places and ask that some remedy be made. A committee consisting of J. H. Kelly, Alfred Tanzer, H. D. McCabe, C. L. Schuck and R. H. Thatcher was appointed to investigate the question of the borough limits and see which direction it would be best to expand in.

Monessen Club Dance

On next Wednesday the first outdoor dance of the season to be held by the Monessen club will be held at Eldora park and a large attendance is expected. These dances which are to be held during the summer at the park should prove very enjoyable as the management has gone to a great expense in retouching up the surroundings and installing every comfort for the convenience of patrons.

A Poor Sort of Luck

Clair Myers, a lad of Homer City won a five dollar alarm clock by "taking a chance" which cost him only ten cents. The Indiana County American published at that place declared him lucky. Is it lucky for a boy to learn to gamble? It is a dangerous sort of luck. But if the lad takes that clock home, uses it to wake him in the morning in time to get to work and gamble no more, it will be lucky for him. But once started, even though it be only ten cents, it is likly he will be tempted to further indulgence.

There should be something done to stop the prevalent tendency to teach the young people to gamble by raffles and chance affairs to be seen in stores and other places. Work for your money and it is yours. Gamble for it, and though you may have it, yet it belongs to the one who earned it. The owner of a machine or any gambling device always comes out ahead because it is so arranged that if you win some one else loses, and all who play lose in character.

Paying School Taxes

By close perusal of the new school code we note that the regulations for the collection of taxes are more stringent than heretofore, and those who fail to keep this important matter in view may find themselves facing conditions which permit of no compromise. There is no delinquent list under the late provision. The treasurer is supposed to be on the job all the time, and while he may exercise judgment and leniency for a time, he is apt to appear suddenly at any time in the person of a deputy and demand of the slothful one that which the school district demands as its due. Under the law wages can be attached for this tax and if the employer fails to deduct it from the wage of the delinquent he is liable for it himself. By reason of this, hundreds of dollars additional will be realized for the advancement of school work which would otherwise be placed on the dead or delinquent list.

There are some men howling about high prices and hard times, yet they find time and means to step up and indulge several times a day in a glass of wine, whiskey or beer Instead of lounging around the streets and thus disgracing himself and his family such a man would do well to rent, for little or nothing, a few of the town's vacent lots, spade them, plant them and produce potatoes, corn, cabbage, etc., which would go a long way toward driving the wolf from the door and reducing the cost of living.

There are people who grow impatient over the slow rate at which progress is being made for the better, but even they are forced to admit that wonderful changes have come during the last 50 years, and greater ones are in store for the next half century. Truly the world is getting better.

It has been suggested to change the time for opening the Congressional term, but still there are other people more concerned about the time when it shall end—for some of the members.

It's a great pity that usually the victim in a riot is the innocent by stander.

TAG DAY AT GREENSBURG FOR CHILD'S PLAYGROUNDS

Today is "Tag Day" in Greensburg, and all-day-long a cordon of pretty girls, chaperoned by the lady members of the civic and play grounds committees, will patrol the streets, covering every nook and cranny of the county seat town, the money raised to be used in propogating and improving the children's play grounds. Just one year ago today Greensburg had a "tag day" and considerably more than $1,000 was raised by the girls, and the result was that the children of that town got more real good out of that thousand dollars in playground recreation than in any other possible way it could have been applied.

It would do Monessen people good to just be in Greensburg one-half day and see what the word playground signifies. It would be a good object lesson and at once they would return and begin to advocate playgrounds with the right sort of earnestness. It's a feature badly needed here, and we hope our better people—especially the ladies—will soon awake to the fact.

HOW AND WHEN COAL WAS DISCOVDRED

Many and many a time have we heard people ask how coal was discovered, who discovered it and when it was first used as fuel. Very few there are, living right in this great Monongahela valley, where for years and years, the mining and shipping of coal has been one among the leading industries, and from which millions upon millions of dollars have been made, who could answer the above questions if asked, not even those who have made their fortunes right in the business. We doubt if there could be found ten men in Monessen, right among the hurry and bustle of the big mills who have ever stopped to give the matter a thought.

The consumption of coal, it is an interesting and notable fact, has increased more rapidly than amost any other commodity. There could be no more signal recognition of America's commercial activities and its industrial development.

Five years ago only approximately half the coal was used that is sold today. A consumption that doubles in five years is extraordinary and full of interest.

How was coal discovered in America? Here is one authority's version of it:

"In 1791 a hunter named Phillip Ginther lived on the eastern slopes of the mountains which are drained by the Lehigh river. Late one afternoon he found himself at the summit of a sharp mountain.

"A storm was coming up and Ginther broke into a run, for his home was some distance away. Stumbling over the root of a fallen tree, he kicked up a black stone and noticed that the soil in which the tree had grown was mingled with similar specimens of an unusual formation.

"Now, Ginther had heard that there was 'stone coal' on the mountains, so he picked up the stumbling block which had checked his course, and carried it home with him and gave it to Col. Jacob Weiss, who lived near the site of the present Mauch Chunk."

There was no way to dispose of the new fuel, however. Wood was still plentiful, and no one wanted the "black diamonds." Finally it was floated in "arks" down to Philadelphia, and then its owners sadly found that they could not get it to burn. A few years later men were actually arrested in Philadelphia for selling "stones" that would not burn. It was not until some one discovered the principle of a draught that coal could be used at all. It did not get a real start as a commodity until 1820.

PRETTY GIRL MARRIES NEGRO

Beautiful Clara Krauthaup, aged 23, who received her education in a convent, is a retired merchant of Milbury, O., is alleged to have eloped from her father's home with Charles Jackson, aged 37, a negro. According to the police and the records the couple were married by Rev. A. Wakefield, a negro minister of the A. M. E. Zion Mission church on the Northside.

The first bottle helped me and now I am a strong and well woman. I would not be without it in the house."—Mrs. ANNA HIGGINS, 1125 Agency St., Burlington, Iowa.

This evening, the members of the men's class of the Baptist church will banquet the members of the women's class in the basement and a royal good time is anticipated. After supper is served, there will be speeches, toasts and the like, and those in charge have arranged a program that will furnish ample entertainment for the entire evening.

John Skreces, aged 22, of Kregar, in the Ligonier valley, while working at the Blair lumber yards yesterday, fell on a saw and his right leg was ripped from the ankle to the knee. He was taken to the Latrobe hospital, where he died early this morning.

F. P. Breining, steward of the Eagles' club at Jeannette, was found guilty yesterday of illegal liquor selling. William Evans, treasurer, stated on the witness stand that the receipts of the club for the three months ending, February 28, were $1,389.26, including tobacco, liquor and money from smokers.

News Notes of Society

A very nice banquet was given last night by the losing team of the Friday evening bridge club of the Sixth street hill. Mrs. Wm. Frantz and Mrs. A. R. Ney were captains of the club and Mrs. Frantz's team lost and as a result furnished the banquet Twenty covers were laid in the dining room of the Kilroy hotel and both sides sat down to a sumptuous spread. The tables were tastefully decorated with natural flowers and the dining room presented a very attractive appearance. The evening was very pleasantly spent.

Newspaper and Magazine.

The daily newspaper is the quick-firing gun; but besides its advantages in timeliness and local and personal interest, it has crystalized into a necessity, while the magazine still remains in the luxury column.—Frank A. Munsey.

COPE IS UP AGAINST IT

Next Monday evening South Brownsville council will decide definitely on taking action to oust Tax Collector Eli Cope. A committee went to Uniontown this week to consult the borough attorneys. Their opinion will be ready for the adjourned session of council next week. Until then the whole affair is in a state of "statu quo."

Cope failed to come up with the balance claimed to be due, and at the monthly session of council Monday night it was agreed to hold off no longer. He has defied council, and instead of making answer to the demand made upon him went to Uniontown and had one of the county seat papers print the stories of his life, in which he was depicted as a martyr.

Mike Gaspich returned from a business trip to McKeesport and Pittsburgh yesterday.

TO CHECK SPEEDING

Within the next few days several arrests may be expected if some of the fast driving that is going on daily on our streets is not modified to a great extent, according to an edict sent out by Chief of Police J. C. Wheatley. It is said that there are too many owners of automobiles in town who pay little or no attention to the speed at which they go whizzing around the streets. The peril to pedestrians has also been increased owing to the large number of machines which are now in the town. Chief Wheatley says it is not his desire to make an example of anyone, but if the warning is not heeded, someone will have to suffer, and the first one who is caught will pay the extreme penalty.

At Monongahela the baseball park is under water, hence the season at that place cannot open today as per schedule and the game was called off yesterday by Manager Clark. This is caused by the river's rise, the backwater flooding the ground. So today's game with Coal Valley has been cancelled and the date moved forward one week, the Liggett Athletic association boys to cross bats with St. Peters Lyceum team of Pittsburg.

Captain Stephen O. Gilmore, one of the best known river pilots of the three rivers, was swept into the Ohio and drowned when his boat the Little Fred, of the Monongahela River Consolidated Coal & Coke company, was caught in a windstorm and blown on its side near Steubenville, O., yesterday. Nineteen members of the crew escaped. Captain Gilmore's body has not been found.

THE SAVIOR'S TEACHINGS — BROOKLYN TABERNACLE BIBLE STUDIES

CHRISTIANITY AND THE LAW.

Matthew v, 17-26—May 19.

"He that loveth his neighbor hath fulfilled the Law."—Romans xiii, 8.

THE Great Teacher declared that He came not to destroy the Law and the Prophets, but to fulfil them. While the Law was spoken of as Moses' Law, it was really the Divine Law given to Israel as a basis for the Divine Covenant with that nation, and Moses merely stood as mediator of that Law Covenant—that agreement by which Israel was obligated to keep the Law, and God was obligated if they did so to grant them everlasting life. Divine favor and the glorious privilege of being His instruments for the blessing of all nations, under Messiah's Kingdom.

Let's of Love—"Thou shalt not kill."

The failure of even the most sincere Israelites to gain the promised everlasting life proved, not that God's Law was unjust, but that Israel, like the remainder of the world, shared by inheritance Adamic weaknesses, which so impaired their moral quality that they could not keep God's perfect Law, which our Lord defined to be whole-hearted love for God and "Golden Rule" love for the neighbor.

The Gospel of Jesus magnifies the Jewish Law by admitting its righteousness. The proposition of Jesus in respect to His followers is this: He, being perfect, was able to keep the Mosaic Law perfectly, and had a right, therefore, to everlasting life, and needed not to have died, but instead of retaining His life He laid it down sacrificially, as a part of the great Divine Plan for human redemption. That sacrifice will bring to the world the blessed opportunity for eternal life which it has been promised. Messiah's Kingdom will bring. But meantime the Redeemer, carrying out Jehovah's plans, offers an imputation of His merit to any who have His spirit of full consecration to do the Father's will by laying down the present life sacrificially, to gain with the Redeemer a heavenly, spiritual life, glory, honor, immortality, the Divine nature, as Messiah's joint-heirs in His Kingdom. All who thus do will be counted as a part of the spiritual Seed of Abraham, through whom all the families of the earth will receive their blessing.

These disciples of Jesus sacrifice their earthly interests and rights and thus become to Adamic death to earthly things. God accepts their sacrifices and begets them of the Holy Spirit. Thus they become New Creatures in Christ. But how could God accept a blemished offering? and are not these New Creatures held responsible for the conduct of their flesh, so long as they live—until their sacrifice is completed?

The Scriptures answer: The great High Priest, who presents these offerings as part of His own sacrifice, covers their imperfections by an imputation of the merit of His own sacrifice, which is already in the hands of Justice waiting for application on behalf of the sins of the world. When this High Priest thus presents us to God covered with His own merit as a robe, we are assured that the sacrifices are holy and acceptable unto God.

As for subsequent weaknesses of the flesh, the New Creature is indeed held responsible for its mortal body, but since our High Priest tasted death for every man and for all sins of heredity, therefore these New Creatures in Christ are assured that all their trespasses, of ignorance, or weakness, may be forgiven, and that the Redeemer, their Head and Representative in glory, will, upon application, impute His merit for the cancelation of such imperfections that they may be maintained in their standing, "without spot or wrinkle or any such thing."

The Pharisees' Standard Lower.

The Pharisees prided themselves on their zeal for the Law and found fault with Jesus' disciples and with Himself for healing the sick on the Sabbath. They were particular respecting the little requirements of the Law, but careless respecting its spirit of love. This Jesus termed hypocrisy: He declared that unless His followers were nearer right in heart than were the Pharisees they would not get into the Kingdom at all. (We must remember the difference between the embryo Kingdom inaugurated at Pentecost and the glorious Kingdom into which the faithful will be ushered by the First Resurrection.) All Christ's followers must not only guard their actions but also their lips and the very thoughts of their hearts, that even in thought they shall be in fullest accord with the spirit of the Divine Law of love.

Spirit of Law—Hatred is murder.

The intimation is that if we have wronged a brother and delay to make the matter right and the case come before the Lord for settlement, we will be obliged to suffer the full penalty of our neglect, "the uttermost farthing," before we will be fully restored to Divine favor and fellowship.

NEAR-RIOT NARROWLY AVERTED ON THE HILL

A near riot was averted last night by the timely arrival of a detachment of the local police force at the corner of Knox avenue and Sixth street about 10 o'clock. It seems a free-for all scrap got started by some unknown means and a riot call was turned in to the department. An immediate response was made, but when the officers arrived on the spot all was quiet, a stillness pervading the surroundings even to the degree of chilliness. However, a little inquiry revealed the fact that a lively time had been indulged in for a short while, twenty or more foreigners mixing promiscuously, kicking each other's shins, pulling hair, scratching faces and the air was discordant with the screams of women and children But like the Knights of old, when they heard the distant note of danger, they folded their mantles about them and disappeared in the darkness of night. Again this morning another riot call was sounded from the same point and the police responded, but as before all was quiet. Inquiry revealed the fact that the trouble had been started by Emo Lindquist, a survivor of the Titanic disaster, who having some misunderstanding with a fellow countryman, had proceeded to give him a sound chastising. But as there's always two sides to a question, opposition was made, friends of both parties interfered and another free-for-all took place. Lindquist, it is said, succeeded in administering a pretty good beating to his man, and then he disappeared. Warrants are out for the offenders, and arrests are likely to soon follow.

When public endorsement is made by a representative citizen of Monessen the proof is positive. You must believe it Read this testimony. Every backache sufferer, every man, woman or child with any kidney trouble will find profit in the reading.

David M Conard, 257 Sixth street., Monessen, Pa., says: "About a year ago I had an attack of kidney trouble, the first symptom being a pain in the small of my back. A physician said that my kindeys were out of order and deciding to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I procured a supply from the Hirsch Drug Co. The contents of one box removed the pain in my back and I corrected the disorder with the kidney secretions. I am now entirely free from kidney complaint and give Doan's Kidney Pills the credit."

OLYMPIC

Manager Sotus, of the Olympic theatre, has something fine for Monday and Tuesday in the way of vaudeville four acts and all good ones, but the feature will be a musical quartette which is exceptionally fine. Away above the average and none of the amusement lovers of the town should miss seeing this great offering—matinee 5c and 10c. For tonight the Olympic has a fine vaudeville bill of four teams and the pictures are fully up to the usual high standard. All-in-all it's an elegant Saturday night bill.

MISS CORA GETS VERDICT

A verdict for $400 in favor of Miss Cora Livingston, against David Reich, who owns a stand in the Pittsburgh market, has been returned by a jury in common pleas court. Miss Livingston, who is a sister of Chief Ordinance Officer Murray G. Livingston, sued Reich for damages because of the humiliation and shame she suffered when Reich accused her before a crowd of people at the market house of trying to steal a box of cherries and had a policeman arrest her.

Ain't that a shame? It is supposed this is the same "Cora" that placed herself in disfavor by her abusive tactics toward her opponent in a wrestling bout at the Star theatre Monday evening.

Friday's Greensburg Review said: "Stranded financially, and having no friends in this city, four negoes, three women and one man, called at 'Squire J. Q. Truxal's office, Thursday afternoon and asked to be committed to jail for the night. Their story to the 'Squire was that they were from Monessen and were witnesses in a case that was listed for yesterday. The case was postponed until today.

As they had no money to pay for lodging, a night's lodging at the jail looked good to them. After talking the matter over an arrangement was made to keep the four at the city hall and they were sent there for the night."

A FAYETTE CITY JAIL BREAKER IS FOUND

Justice Frank Venaleck, of Fayette City, who broke out of jail at that place late last Sunday night, was recaptured at Sturgeon, yesterday afternoon by Constable R. A. Palmer, of North Fayette township, as he was attempting to board a westbound freight train on the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis railroad. Venaleck was arrested at his home in Fayette City Sunday night for alleged abuse of his wife, by Constable John Eckman, and was locked up about 11 o'clock.

The constable allowed the justice the privilege of the corridor in the little jail, not wanting to lock him in a cell and shortly before midnight, the constable went to his home and retired. In the meanwhile Venaleck made his escape.

Justice McMurray was authorized by the Fayette City officials to get Venaleck if possible, and he in turn notified Constable Palmer, who located the fugitive in a hotel at Sturgeon early Wednesday afternoon The man denied that he was the man wanted, and as the constable was not positive, he allowed him to go, but watched him during the afternoon, and when he discovered him attempting to get out of the town on the freight train he placed him under arrest

Venaleck then admitted his identity and was taken to the Oakdale lockup. A clipping from a Pittsburgh newspaper was found on the man which told of his escape Late last night Constable Eckman arrived in Oakdale and the prisoner was turned over to him and he was taken back to Fayette City.
